

From the Airport to the Hotel „Kaiser Franz Josef“ in Vienna, 19th district

If you intend to use public transport, then purchase a single ticket (“Einzelfahrschein”) for € 1,70 at a newspaper shop at the airport – or, if closed, later in the city centre. Then proceed to the

City Airport Train – CAT

We recommend to take the CAT (City Airport Train) which leaves the airport every 30 minutes. The trip takes 16 minutes. The fare is €9 per person. The advantage of the CAT is, that you cannot get stuck in traffic on the freeway, where the buses to and from the airport are running. Timetable:

<http://www.cityairporttrain.com/fahrplan/catfahrplan/langen/>

The CAT takes you to a station called “Wien Mitte”, which is close to the city centre.

or bus

Alternatively you may also take a bus from the airport to “Wien-Schwedenplatz”, which is also close to the city centre. The fare is €6. The bus leaves every 30 minutes, too.

If you haven't purchased a ticket for € 1,70 from a newspaper shop at the airport, then do so now. There are also ticket machines at the entrance of the metro stations which charge €2,20 instead of €1,70. These machines do not return change! So please have small coins ready.

Vienna Metro (U-Bahn)

Being in the possession of the ticket, you proceed the metro U4 – direction “Heiligenstadt”. Don't forget to stamp your ticket before entering the metro.

<http://homepage.univie.ac.at/horst.prillinger/metro/english/u4.html>

Bus 39A

At “Heiligenstadt” – which is where the metro terminates – to get onto bus 39A. Ten minutes later you leave at “Friedlgasse”, which is the 6th stop. 20 metres uphill you'll find the hotel “Kaiser Franz Josef”.

Alternatively you may hire a taxi, which should cost €30 - 40...

For the way back, we recommend to share an airport-taxi, which runs for € 30 per trip. Four people sharing is cheaper than using public transport. The taxi can be booked at the reservation booth at the hotel.